THE REBELLION IN THE NORTH OF CHINA.

AN IMPERIAL EDIOT. (Special Telegram.) The Chinese Mail (Wa-Tsz-Yat-Po) received another telegram yesterday from Peking in connection with the rising in the North. It runs as follows :---An Imperial Edict was issued on the 11th instant to the following effect :-Chi-Chiu and others reporting that the Imperial troops fought with success against the insurgents at U-Shu-Lam (the Bushes of Elms), the Throne acknowledged that in consequence of the recent out. break by banditti at Hak Lap Huai the said Ip Chi-chiu was under instructions to proceed and suppress the insurgents with der-in-Chief of land forces in Chili province, has directed his officer, Colonel Pun Man-chey, to proceed along the borders of the disaffected places, Ng fu and Madeung, where they gained successes against the insurgents; that on the 20th day of the 10th moon (30th ultimo) the troops ar-rived at the disaffected place, U Shu-lam and went out to battle with the rebels, who gathered together over two thousand in number and blockuded the passes and defiles in opposition to the Imperial troops. Per Hisagno, at 11.30 a.m., on Tuesday, Matar Tang Kwang Tung advanced in a the 15th inst., instead of as previous sudden in all directions, surrounded them (the insurgents) on all sides and fought with them for no less than four hours, the result being that all the insurgents were entirely suppressed—gither captured or killed. A great many horses and a large quantity of ammunition were a so captured.

Along the Noon.—Bisagne leaves for Bombay, &c. shau, which lies on the eastern border of the Kin-chong District, there is another ringleader named Lin Wai who has under him over a thousand rebels and occupies the place. So that on the 3rd day of this moon (3rd instant). Commanderin-chief, Nich Szehing went with his forces to the disaffected place and joined battle with the insurgents, helped by his officers, Lieut. Colonel Yuk-pin and others on both wings. The result was that the ring-leader Lin Wai and other insurgents, over four hundred in number, were killed, and a great number of rifles, horses, carriages, guns, and banners captured, the rest being routed and scattered. The said Nieh Sz shing is proceeding with his forces to the Hak Fun places to suppress another band of insur-gents. The defiles and passes in the Dis-tricts of Ping-lang and Kin-chong, etc., are at present being re-opened and managed in a satisfactory manner. The Edict also commands Ip-chi-chiu, the Com-mander-in-chief of the Land forces, to proceed at once with the officers and troops under him and to pursue and suppress with their combined forces the rebels that are still at large among the Mongolian triber. He, Commander Ip, must lose no time to stamp them out and to either kill or capture every one of them, and must not allow even one of them to remain in the Kai, Figuereido, Remedios, Gutierrez, vernment by officials who despise the peopla they govern. We agree with the hon. member. The machinery of government Ohu Po, &c. in Hongkong is too large and expensive for the work it has to do; and some frugal persons in the Straits have opinions of their own about the advi ntages of a numerons executive which eats a very big hole in the Colonial revenues, and pays away the rest against the wishes of the Coloniets. But they are modest and humble, and don't make their opini as public.

A SINGAPORE correspondent writes to the London & Ching Topress :- Some recent decisions in England as to serving writs on foreign firms are likely to cause inconvenisnce here, for the rules under the Straits nor of the firm of MacEwen, Frickel and Co. Procedure Ordinance on this head are much the same as the judicature rules at home, and consequently these decisions would apply here. They are to the effect that when a partner in a firm resides out of the jurisdiction, and is not a British aubject, a writ cannot be served upon the firm by zerving the members or manager at the place of business in the jurisdiction, but the member abroad must also be served. Most of the firme in the Straits have members abroad; the European diese always have one or two partuers in Europe, and the Chinese usually some in China, and often in unknown parts of it; and as under the English Partnership Act of 1890. which applies here, execution cannot be lovied against any portion of a protuership property without a judgment baving been obtained against the firm, and not only against the individual members, these de cisions throw considerable difficulty in the way of saizing the assets of a pirinership. However, it is to be hoped that the impediment will be met by new Rules of Court, as it has been at home by the new Judicavary Bales of June, 1841.

than it was formerly in reference to the heir to the throne. Some writers venture to imitate their brothren of the religious press by expressing the hope that the Prince will prove by his course in the immediate future that he is a better man at 50 than he was at 30.

The only paper which indulges in unrestricted sulogy is the Sunday Times. which is controlled by Augustus B. Harris, who owes to the favor of the Prince much of whatever he is or has in the world. The paper remarks that the Prince has always performed the duties of his exalted station with such grace and heartiness that those accustomed to seeing him in the midst of social functions are apt to forget his house of serious toil, and adds : The Prince's career has been closely watched for years without having been found wanting, and his birthday is hailed with universal sensiments of respect, attention and gratifude among the people. The Star has a radical distribe against what it terms the shams of the day. It suggests that the royal birthday. Guy Fawkes day and the Lord Mayor's show should be celebrated together to save time and expense, and hints that all these whams are nearly at the end of their tether.
